BOUNDARY COUNTY Public Information

Press Release 4-10-19

The Idaho Sheriffs' Association offers an online handgun safety training course that satisfies the firearms familiarity requirements for a basic Idaho Concealed Weapons License. Click on the following link to access the site www.idahocwl.org.” The recent change allowing 18 year old persons to carry concealed throughout Idaho will be updated on July 1st when that law becomes effective.

The course is free to take, however the certificate of completion costs $25. This is an option for individuals wanting to obtain their concealed weapon permit; there are also several excellent firearms instructors locally that offer training to meet the requirements.
